

PROMINENT MAN DROWNED

Boat Overturns and Mr. Robin H. White Meets Death in Flag Pond Near Salt Lick.

Possibly no death in years has caused the universal sorrow and regret among all classes of people as the tragic death of Mr. Robin H. White, which occurred at Flag Pond near Salt Lick, Bath county, last Wednesday morning. Mr. White, accompanied by Dr. C. W. Compton and a negro cook, Simon Brakes, were camping near Flag Pond for a few days fishing. Early Wednesday morning they got ready to raise a hoop net that had been set in the pond when the colored man lost his balance and fell from the boat, overturning it. Neither Mr. White or Dr. Compton could swim, however Dr. Compton managed to catch hold of the boat but Mr. White could neither reach the boat or land and was drowned. The negro swam ashore and secured help and Dr. Compton was rescued and Mr. White's body recovered.

"Bob" as he was familiarly called by a legion of friends, was one of the most popular men that ever lived in this city. He took a great interest in all public affairs and always gave liberally of his time and means to any enterprise started for the public good. He was the first Scout Master for the Boy Scouts in this city and at the time of his death was Secretary of the Health and Welfare League, was a member of the Elks and Masonic lodges and also a member of the State Board of Pharmacy. At the time of his death he was forty-three years of age. He had been in the drug business here for a number of years.

Of a kind and sympathetic nature the poor and needy always found in him a friend ready to hear their story of sorrow and sickness and willing to help them not only with words of cheer and comfort but with medicine for their ills and money or supplies for their other needs. It is sad indeed to see one so well equipped for life to be so unexpectedly taken, but God in His infinite wisdom knows best and while it is hard for us to understand, still we bow in humble submission to His will.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Albin B. White and two brothers, Mr. W. B. White, of this city, and Assistant State Treasurer J. Laurence White, of Frankfort. To the bereaved and stricken family we tender our deepest sympathy.

Funeral services were conducted at his mother's home on East Main street Thursday afternoon at two o'clock by Rev. Clays Darsie, assisted by Rev. M. V. P. Yeaman. The Elks and Mason lodges attended in a body. Burial in Machpelah cemetery.

E. R. LITTLE BUYS BIG FARM

Mr. E. R. Little last week bought the well known Elmhurst Farm in Fayette county on the Winchester and Lexington pike, from R. C. Estill, paying about $250 per acre for same. The farm contains 402 acres and is considered one of the very best in Fayette county. Mr. Little is one of the most energetic and progressive farmers and stockmen in this county and has many friends who will regret to see him leave the county.

JOINS OFFICERS' RESERVE CORPS

MR. STANLEY O. WOOD

Mr. Stanley O. Wood, the bright young editor of the Mt. Sterling Gazette, has passed the examination and has taken the oath as a member of the Officers' Reserve Corps of the United States. Mr. Wood is a son of the late John C. Wood, and also a nephew of the late Maj. A. T. Wood, both prominent for years in Kentucky politics. Mr. Wood has made arrangements with his uncle, Mr. W. Hoffman Wood, to take charge of his paper during his absence. Being an upright, energetic young man of fine personal appearance his friends are confident he will win an appointment upon the completion of his training term.

Magistrate District 6.

COUNTY NOT RAISED

The State Board of Equalization decided not to raise Montgomery county this year, after it was shown that in 1913 we were raised six per cent; in 1914 six per cent; in 1915 five per cent, and in 1916 ten per cent, making twenty-seven per cent in the past four years. This does not include increases made by the local Board of Assessment. Montgomery county, it was also shown the Board, is assessed higher for taxation than any county in the State, in proportion. The county was represented before the Board by Messrs. W. O. Chenault, L. R. Douglas and W. F. Horton.

SELECTIVE CONSCRIPTION

Government's Plan to Conscript Young Men Outlined by the War Department.

An official outline of the method by which military registration is to be carried out under the selective conscription bill was made public Saturday, with an appeal from the War Department for the voluntary services of state election and other officials in order that there will be no delay in enrolling and classifying millions of men for army duty.

Careful preparation has been made to place the whole task in the hands of civilian officials of the states and to remove every suggestion of military force in putting the measure into effect. The only function of the Federal Government will be supervision through the office of the Provost Marshal General. The department's statement follows:

There was a time in the country's history when military enumerators, backed by bayonet, went out among the people to take a compulsory service census. Today, under the principle of universal liability to service, the execution of the law is put into the hands of the people.

Everyone Must Register

The approval of the new national army bill and the President's proclamation thereunder will be coincident. All persons within the age limits prescribed will be required to present themselves for registration at the customary voting places in the voting precincts in which they have their permanent homes on a day which the President will announce. The probability is that from 10 to 15 days will elapse between approval of the bill and registration day.

The Governor of each state will be the chief of registration therein. The machinery of registration in each county is to be in charge of the Sheriff, the County Clerk and the County Physician, acting ex officio, unless a different board shall be announced by the Governor. In cities containing populations of more than 30,000, the registration will be under the control of the Mayor and selected boards of registration. In order that the designated county and city officials, and the people generally, can get a clear understanding of the census methods, the following brief outline is given:

The Sheriff or other designated officials, immediately upon receipt
